Buck-le-Hem 2008 Monday 22nd December 2008 - 6.30pm from the Millennium Orchard.

Another opportunity to step back from the shopping rush to consider the true meaning of Christmas. There will be an initial interest meeting on Tuesday 7th October at 7.30pm at St. Luke's Church and two music rehearsals on Monday 17th November and Monday 1st December at 7.30p.m. Everyone is welcome and you don't need to be a good singer, just enthusiastic. We need singers, musicians, readers, people to act out the scenes, behind the scenes people, horses and riders, shepherds, angels, crowds, everyone can be a part of this true community event. We will all meet in the Orchard on Monday 22nd December at 6.30p.m and encourage everyone to dress up, but it is not essential. We will have a better sound and more carols this time as everyone seems to like singing carols. For more information look out for the Buckfastleigh News Sheet or contact Jan Young or Sandra Coleman.

Buck-le-Hem unites all the Churches in Buckfastleigh in organising one big event.

If you would like to advertise your event – you can do so free of charge in this Newsletter. Just let us have the details before the beginning of January, April, July & October.
